PRAYER CHAIN ~ Contact Janet Creager at 419-592-5799

Dear Parishioners:

It is great to be home and I want to thank Fr. Ring for his faithful service to our Parish during my sabbatical. As I said last week he was very impressed with the faith, service, and generosity of St. Augustine. He was also very grateful for your kindness to him.

Congratulations to our students making their First Holy Communion! May the gift of Jesus in the Eucharist give you all the strength you need to live your lives in faith.

“As the Father loves me, so I also love you.” Jesus lets us know that he loves us as the Father loves him. Jesus is loved by the Father as an equal and in turn Jesus loves us with that same equality. It is a love that puts us first and raises us up so we know that we are cherished. When we fail to recognize or believe that Jesus loves us in such a way, our efforts to love each other will not be successful.

We experience great joy when our belief in Jesus’ love for us compels us to share it with others. Then we will be able to understand that our joy is complete because we have totally given ourselves to God and our neighbor. This is what we were created to do and what makes our lives come to a great sense of satisfaction.

It is in keeping the commandments that makes us friends of Jesus. Jesus made known the commandments to us! He heard them from the Father and then fulfills them by laying down his life for us. To be in friendship with Jesus requires us to lay down our lives, our selfishness, plans, and ambitions out of love for Christ. In our friendship with Jesus we “bear fruit that will remain.”

Peace,

Fr. Doug

300 CLUB - Congratulations to our April 300 Club winners: Jo Schwaiger, Jeff Steingass, Ruth Like and Judy Comer. You should have received your winnings in the mail. Tickets are still available at the school and church offices. The cost of a ticket is $50, but your winnings would be $100! Drawings will take place until mid-June.

FROM THE SCHOOL

Students put on a talent show the last week of April. Eleven acts were selected after auditions, and the individuals and groups performed in front of the student body and families. The acts included singing, a skit, dancing, and band and guitar songs. Our student council sponsored the activities and selected the final contestants. Each contestant was given a token of our appreciation.

Students in grades 3-8 did their own "book talk" in front of the class and Mrs. Dickes from the public library. I listened to two presentations, both of which were done on PowerPoint. Mrs. Miller explained that the students should "tease" the class by giving them a hook. The first book reviewed was Will Wilder- The Staff of Wonders. She said the book took place in 1899, and the main character was twelve years old. The main characters were numerous, including the Wilder family. She told about the conflict and solution to the story with the message being, "Good overcomes evil". The second book was the first in the Chronicles of Narnia series, Magician's Nephew. Again, there were many characters introduced. The main character was sent into the unknown world where he met evil. The presenter made a pop-up book which she showed.

In Preschool and Kindergarten, Miss Barb stopped in and read three different books to the students. They included: A Day at Greenhill Farm by Sue Nicholson, Noisy Nature on the Farm by Maurice Pledger, Baby Animal Pop! By Sarah Wassner Flynn, and the song, "Old McDonald Had a Farm". It seems as though was Farms.
