PRAYER CHAIN ~ Contact Janet Creager at 419-592-5799

Dear Parishioners:

Capuchin Father Raniero Cantalamessa, the Pontifical Household preacher, has written some inspiring words on the Feast of Corpus Christi: I believe that the most necessary thing to do on the feast of Corpus Christi is... to revive wonder and marvel before the mystery.

The feast was born in Belgium, in the early 13th century; Benedictine monasteries were the first to adopt it. Urban IV extended it to the whole Church in 1264; it seems that he was also influenced by the Eucharistic miracle of Bolsena, venerated today in Orvieto.

Why was it necessary to institute a new feast? Doesn't the Church recall the institution of the Eucharist on Holy Thursday? Doesn't she celebrate it every Sunday and, more than that, every day of the year? In fact, Corpus Christi... is needed to avoid the danger of getting used to such a presence and no longer pay attention to it, thus meriting the reproach that St. John the Baptist made to his contemporaries: "In your midst stands one whom you do not know!"

One who did not get used to the Eucharist and spoke of it with overwhelming wonder was St. Francis of Assisi. "Let humanity fear, let the entire universe tremble, and the heavens exult, when on the altar, in the hands of the priest, is Christ, son of the living God. ... O admirable rapture and amazing designation! O sublime humility! O humble sublimity, that the Lord of the universe, God and son of God, so humbles himself as to hide under the small appearance of bread!"

I am sorry to say that we will not have a procession this year, but I want to encourage all to "avoid the danger of getting used to such a presence." May God lead us all closer to a stronger faith in Christ's presence in the Eucharist!

Peace,

Fr. Doug

FROM THE SCHOOL

Preschool had their last visit from Miss Barb (public library) the last week of school. She talked about zoo animals. A book on CD called A Trip to the Zoo by Karen Wallace talked about a boy named Billy and his friend. Billy loved wild animals and knew a lot about them. Some of the animals they saw included: elephant (teeth), rhinos (horns), zebras (stripes), tigers (lying under tree snoring), giraffe (chomping), and a gorilla (taking care of her baby). The second book was Feeding Time at the Zoo by Sherry Shahan. It talked about the different types of food the animals ate and preparing that food. Animals mentioned were elephants, giraffes and zebras, pandas, pigs, tortoises, porcupine, tigers, alligators, sea lions, polar bears, and parrots. Two other books she read to them were Wild Animals by Nicola Tuxworth and a pop-up book, Jungle by Richard Ferguson.

Another visitor the last week was Officer Rubio and his assistant from Defiance College, Rebekah, who is in the Forensics program. The officer presented our students in grades PK-2 with the book, A Day at the Police Station, of the Berenstain Bears series. He was here to recognize Police Recognition Week which honors those members who have died in the line of duty.

The last two drawings for Box Tops for Education (now called Clip for Cash) was completed. The first winning class was grades 5 and 6 with Nick Nahrwold winning the Dairy Queen gift card. The four quarter winning class was grades 1 and 2 with Parker Botjter the DQ winner. Continue to collect over the summer.
