PRAYER CHAIN ~ Contact Janet Creager at 419-592-5799

Dear Parishioners:

Our Gospel today has Jesus healing and casting out demons in Galilee. Along with the crowds, who flock to Him so that He can't even take a break to eat, come people who do not understand what He is doing. Even His friends think He has lost His mind and needs to be taken away for a while. But the scribes who came down from Jerusalem are not just honestly mistaken; they accuse Him of being possessed by the prince of demons.

It is actually just the opposite. Dr. Scott Hahn says: Jesus is revealing Himself as the one promised in our first reading. He is the seed of the woman who has come to crush the head of the demonic serpent. In the parable of the strong man, Jesus reveals that He has come not just to punish the devil but to free those bound by him. As St. Bede explains, "The Lord has also bound the strong man, that is, the devil: which means... He has snatched them from the snares of the devil, and has united them to His Church."

The scribes blaspheme by attributing this work of the Holy Spirit to demons. Jesus adds a statement that shocks us at first: "whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness." That does not mean that there are any limits to the mercy of God (Catechism # 1864). Rather, the only sin that cannot be forgiven is the deliberate refusal to accept the mercy offered through the Holy Spirit.

Instead, we must imitate those who sat at Jesus' feet. For, as He said, "Whoever does the will of God is my brother, and sister, and mother."

Peace,

Fr. Doug

FROM THE SCHOOL

Kindergarten and preschool graduation was held the last week of school with ten younger and seven older students participating. Mrs. Gallagher and Mrs. Weddelman were in charge of the festivities. After the classes processed in they sang four songs: The Butterfly Song, Jesus, You're My Superhero, We Must Say Goodbye, and Thank You Song. Each child was asked his or her favorite memory of this past year (recess was #1), were presented their diplomas by his/her teacher, and received a good-bye letter that Mrs. Gallagher read. Refreshments were provided after the ceremony. We would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Pollock for assisting.

Eighth grade graduation was held at a Saturday mass recently. The three girls (Hannah Huddle, Rosie Duncan, and Shannon Finn) received their diplomas from Father Doug. Afterward, the service awards were handed out. A reception was held in the parish hall following mass. A video of highlights of the graduates was shown to those in attendance. We want to thank Emily Cordes and Holly and Alyssa Sifuentes for their help and assistance.

We would like to say "Farewell" to several staff members who are leaving the school at the end of the year for various reasons. They included Kevin Glanz (custodian) who always kept the building spotless; Mary Claire Miller (vocal music) who is returning to graduate school at BGSU to pursue her masters in music performance; Luanne Strow (speech pathologist) who says she wants to cut back in her "retirement"; and Alain Miller (language arts) who came to our rescue last summer and agreed to teach this past year instead of working on her master's degree. They will all be missed.

Jim George, Principal
