Eucharistic Revival... "This Is My Body"

Second Vatican Council taught, and continues to teach... that the Eucharist is the Source and Summit of the Christian life. But, in regards to that, a Pew study was given and it revealed that the vast majority of our own Catholic people did not understand this central and crucial reality. Here in our diocese and our St. Augustine Parish we've gone for-bore as they say into this problem of helping educate and experience the fullest aspect of this Vatican teaching... Jesus, truly is the source and summit of who we are and our faith in understanding it. Through the generosity of our local Knights of Columbus we are extending to all our families a new book out from Word on Fire and Bishop Robert Barron, who is in some minds arguably the greatest Catholic communicator of our times on matters of our faith. Feel free to pick up a copy, "This is my Body" (for FREE) in the back of church. You may, as the phrase goes... "Pass It On" after you have read it, as they also say, anything good is meant to be shared.

The book was written to give us a deeper understanding that the Eucharist is as a Sacred meal, and the Eucharist is as a Sacrifice, and that it is not a symbol but truly what Jesus said... "This is my Body... This is my Blood"
"I am the Bread of Life... I am the living bread which came down from heaven; if any one eats of this bread, he will live forever... this is my flesh" John 6:47, 51.

In his farewell discourse at the Last Supper, Jesus promised his disciples and us: I will not leave you desolate; I will come to you. Picking up on this theme Pope St. John Paul II said, In every celebration of the Eucharist, his coming, his salvific presence, and is sacramentally realized: in the Sacrifice and in the Communion. – Fr. Jerry

 Often referred to as "summer learning slide," much of what's learned during the school year is forgotten over the summer. Summer learning can be tailored to your child's unique interests and around your favorite summertime activities. Online resources offer a wide variety of learning materials, computer games, and other types of games to reinforce and strengthen skills. Students may wish to play learning games with their friends to help make the time fly by and make learning more fun. Summer Learning leads to a great start to the new school year!

Blessings to your family,
