PRINCIPAL'S NOTE

The students presented a truly incredible Christmas Musical titled, "Miracle at Midnight", by Ruth Elaine Schram and Mark Cabaniss, directed by Mrs. Alain Miller! The musical began with all students singing, "Good Morning, Bethlehem!". Next on stage was the Fifth through Eighth Grade presenting, "Count Your Many Taxes." Preschool through Second Grade sang their hearts out to, "O Bethlehem, O Bethlehem!", then students in Fifth through Eighth Grade took the stage again and performed, "Heavenly Hallelujahs" beautifully! Next, it was time for our students in Third and Fourth Grade to shine as they performed, "Holy Light Tonight." Then, Emily Flowers, a Seventh Grade student sang a beautiful solo in, "Bethlehem Bound", accompanied by students in Fifth through Eighth Grade. All students in Third through Eighth Grade sang, "Miracle at Midnight", together and finally all students joined them for the finale and reprise, "Good Morning, Bethlehem!" The students performed their lines with great confidence and intensity! The musical was adorable and the children sang beautifully. I cannot say enough about how blessed we are to have such an amazing music and drama program.

May you be blessed with a heart that only knows love, may baby Jesus teach you to pass your blessings to all those around you and may you have a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year!
