Hear Ye, Hear Ye...

In the call of Samuel and of the first Apostles, we hear in today's readings; they shed light on our own calling to be followers of Christ. Being a follower is each of our vocation calling. Notice in the Gospel today that John's disciples are prepared to hear God's call. They are already looking for the Messiah, so they trust in John's word and follow when he points out the Lamb of God walking by. Look, look, there he is, see he's the one. Samuel is also waiting on the Lord, while sleeping near the Ark of the Covenant where God's glory dwells, taking instruction from Eli, the high priest. We too hear and strive to follow God's will in all that we do.

Samuel listened to God's word and the Lord was with him. And Samuel, through his word, turned all Israel to the Lord. The disciples too heard and followed... those were the words we hear repeatedly in today's Gospel. They stayed with the Lord and by their testimony brought others to the Lord. These scenes from salvation history should give us strength to embrace God's will and to follow His call in our lives. When we undertake any calling we are placing our trust in doing his Holy will. God is constantly calling to each of us... personally, by name. He wants us to seek Him in love. So, we must desire always, as the apostles did, to stay where the Lord stays, to constantly seek His face. For we are not our own, but we belong to the Lord, as St. Paul says in today's Epistle. We must have ears open to obedience, and write His word within our hearts. We must trust in the Lord's promise—that if we come to Him in faith, He will abide with us, and raise us by His power. And we must reflect in our lives the love He has shown us, so that others too may find the Messiah... Christ Saves! As we renew our vows of discipleship in this Eucharist, let us approach the altar singing the new song of today's Psalm: "Behold I come... to do your will O God." - Fr. Jerry

Attention All Parishioners...

I am formally apologizing for any action that has occurred during this restoration project for St. Augustine Church this past year 2023. I'm sure what was done was for the betterment of our St. Augustine Church. If I offend anyone, again I apologize. During this project I failed in getting proper and timely consultation, consent, or permission during this project from the diocese. As always, I will continue to meet, and work with our parish finance council on any capital projects above the norm that they deem necessary. - Rev. Jerry A. Schetter

Diocese of Toledo Snow Emergency Policy

With the winter season upon us, please keep in mind the policy for Level 3 Snow Emergencies, established in 2014: "Whenever a county/city within the Diocese of Toledo is placed under a Level 3 Snow Emergency, during which all roadways are closed to non-emergency personnel, the Catholic Churches within that geographic region will cancel the scheduled Saturday Vigil, Sunday, or Holy Day Masses. Roman Catholics in that region, therefore, are dispensed from the obligation to attend Mass. If Masses are cancelled, Catholics are encouraged to participate in Holy Mass via television, radio, or internet, making a spiritual Communion. When Mass is cancelled, all other diocesan, parish, or school events in that geographic region are also cancelled."

People should always use prudential judgment when traveling. Stay safe and warm.

PRAYING AND FASTING for an increase in vocations to the priesthood. Bishop Daniel A. Thomas is asking for the faithful to add a Hail Mary to their daily prayers and fasting or penance or some other small sacrifice. Learn

FRIDAY ADORATION will take place each First Friday of the month after 8:45 Mass until 5:30 p.m.
 We will have a sign-up sheet in the back of the church and would appreciate folks filling the day so that our Lord is not exposed on the altar without anyone present. If you are not able to come for your hour of adoration, please call Jane Recker at 419-508-0711. The day will end with Benediction at 5:30 p.m.

FROM THE SCHOOL

This month's "Partners in Faith" article reminds us that parenting involves shaping the hearts of our children as well as managing their behavior. One way to do this is offering opportunities to grow in virtue. The main article on page one names four virtues to teach children to help them become holier – and happier! The main article on page two asks us to imagine if the saints had access to social media, how might a "holy" online user behave, post, and respond? How can we help our children imitate the saints on social media? Also on page two, we are reminded that although God intended the Sabbath to be a day of much needed rest, weekends can get so busy that time for God and family can be neglected. Read one mother's solution to reclaim weekends for God and family in Parent Talk.

It is time to start thinking about registering for the upcoming 2024-25 school year! We will begin our official registration process in early February; but if you or someone you know, would like information about St. Augustine Catholic School, please have them contact the school office @ 419-592-3641 or email ginny.minnick@augustinenapoleon.com.

Did you know a Catholic Education is affordable for everyone? The EdChoice Expansion Scholarship is open for all families to apply! The window will open on February 1st, 2024 for the 2024-25 school year for children entering Kindergarten through 8th Grade. The application form and additional information will be updated in the scholarship system website in late January. Please call the school office if you have any questions.

Blessings to your family, Ginny Minnick, Principal
