BULLETIN DEADLINE - Tuesday noon

Ascension... Pentecost... Most Holy Trinity... So nothing great really happens... For sure?

Did anything so great ever happen before? Good question. We may think of it as “freedom”, a freedom that set us free. Sometimes I wonder what it must have been like to be enslaved, with your entire livelihood dependent on the whim of another person, not free to come and go as you choose. Other times, I marvel at what it must have felt like to become free. As Moses says in today’s first reading: “Did anything so great ever happen before”? The taste of freedom is sweet, and surely it is one we have all experienced in one way or another. When we reflect on this mystery of our faith—the salvation of our souls—we come to terms with not just the actions of God but God’s nature as well. Who is this father who sends his son to rescue us from slavery and whose Spirit holds us safe in God’s arms until the heavenly mission is complete? Matthew’s gospel makes it clear: to confess our freedom as Christians is to confess the Most Holy Trinity: three in one, one in three. The gospel also tells us that to confess this truth is to proclaim it and to explain it. Our mission as Catholics is summed up as this: a freedom that sets others free.

Freedom is an aspect of what we have earned. Monday is Memorial Day. The day that feels funny to call a holiday. Yes, it’s the one where we sway between feelings of celebration and mourning. The day we honor the memories of those who have died in the service of our country. At times it feels forlorn, thinking of friends and family who are no longer with us, who were lost too soon. And at other times, we find ourselves celebrating their lives, their accomplishments and their love for life. We know they want us to keep living, just as they did. But it's hard. That is unless we focus on the “Freedom” they won for us. Take some time on Monday to reflect on the history of the country, and more specifically the lives of those lost for our Freedom. One of the ways you can reflect is by joining the parish in celebrating the Mass at the St. Augustine Cemetery Monday, May 27th at 9 am. Hope to see you there. Enjoy this Memorial Day Weekend... Just don't do this without remembering.
– Fr. Jerry

Memorial Day Prayer

In the quiet sanctuaries of our own hearts, let each of us name and call on the

One whose power over us
is great & gentle, firm and forgiving, holy & healing ...

You who created us, O God,
who sustain us,
who call us to live in peace,
hear our prayer this day.

Hear our prayer for all who have died,
whose hearts and hopes are known to you alone ...

Hear our prayer for those who put the welfare of others
ahead of their own
and give us hearts as generous as their own.

Hear our prayer for those who gave their lives
in the service of others,
and accept the gift of their sacrifice.

Help us to shape and make a world
where we will lay down the arms of war
and turn our swords into ploughshares
for a harvest of justice and peace.

Comfort those who grieve the loss of their loved ones
and let your healing be the hope in our hearts...

Hear our prayer this day
and in your mercy answer us
in the name of all that is holy.

The peace of God be with you. Amen!

Support the Catholic Communication Campaign

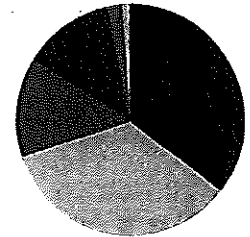

The call to speak with the heart radically challenges the times in which we are living.

—Pope Francis, World Communications Day, 2023

Reading and meditating on the Word of God is a devotion that opens our hearts to the promptings of the Holy Spirit and draws us closer into communion with the whole Church, especially when we meditate on the Scripture passages used in the Mass. For more than 15 years, thousands of people across the United States have viewed the daily reflection videos found on the website of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. Presented by a diverse group of clergy, consecrated religious, and lay volunteers, this popular feature helps viewers grow in faith each day by engaging with the texts of the daily Mass readings. These treasured, high-quality videos are among the faith-enriching programs made possible with your support of the Catholic Communication Campaign.
