The Why's of Miracles...

The boring dictionary definition is "an event that is contrary to the established laws of nature and attributed to a supernatural cause." I guess, that'll work. Not the real question... So, when God steps in and does something truly impossible - that's a miracle. In life I think sometimes we water-down important words by making them so commonplace. I think of these examples... I got the job... it's a miracle! My headache went away just in time for the movie... it's a miracle! My little one ate a green bean... it's a miracle! Although there is a slight chance those examples were true miracles, most likely God did not make the green beans appear to be Mac and Cheese so the young girl would eat them.

We just use the word "miracle" to describe improbable events that we are thankful for. The biblical authors go to great length in many of the miraculous accounts to set-up the impossibility of the situation. Bringing sight to someone born blind certainly reveals a miracle. Stopping a storm immediately is more of a miracle than the weather being clear in time for the church potluck after church. Raising someone from the dead is a miracle; an anti-bacterial clearing up an infection is not.

Now, I'm not saying we shouldn't pray for such things, we should, and that it's not God's blessing when our prayers are answered, but the term "miracle" implies a supernatural intervention that defies human reason, logic, and capability.

The Gospels contain many well attested accounts of miracles. It makes total sense that God the Creator of natural order would and could choose to suspend some natural order occasionally to reveal His power. At the heart of our faith stands the greatest miracle of all... the very Resurrection of Jesus Christ! "If Christ has not been raised, then our proclamation has been in vain, and our faith has been in vain." Yes, God is a miracle worker, and continues to be, so to strengthen our trust in His providence, love, and divine presence. - Fr. Jerry

The Domestic Church...

St. Pope John Paul II's call for a "New Evangelization" recognized the need to re-propose the Gospel to those who have already heard it, but may have lost their connection. The Catholic Domestic Church is on the front lines of this effort. It's through the witness of Catholic families, living joyful and authentic lives of faith, that the Gospel is most effectively shared and rediscovered, both within their ranks and with those they encounter.

Forming Families... Forming Saints

All Christians are called to be saints... Saints in the Making! Yes, saints, those who dwell in eternal paradise, those officially canonized or not. They have lived heroically and virtuous lives who are worthy of imitation.

From those saints, we draw our mission. As parishioners, as parents, as teachers our primary purpose is to assist others in their journey to saintliness, while we pursue the same for ourselves. If we succeed, it will be our greatest success. If we fail, there is no greater failure imaginable.

To become a saint, we are called to holiness. Our goal is how do we treat the family mission? How do we live our parish mission of St. Augustine? Last weekend we lived part of our mission with the celebration of our Parish Family Picnic; hope all our families shared this special time with one another. We were growing more Christ-Like each day by enjoying and living the fruits of our actions. We were striving towards holiness. We were placing God's will with our will.

Our goal, our program should consider a deeper aspect of formation, as crucial, and as intentional as our "Mission Statement". The key virtues that are essential are for the spiritual growth of the human, intellectual, spiritual, and apostolic growth.

St. Francis reminds us, "Make me an instrument of your love. Let me sow love, where there is not. Where there is doubt, let my faith shine through. Let me seek to console as to be consoled!"

I am now pleased to announce a new program we are working towards; assisting those in their grief. The program is: St. Catherine's Embrace. Our Mission is to reach out and embrace families in the St. Augustine and the Henry Cty. area who have lost a child through the tragedy of miscarriage, stillbirth or infant death. The program is an extension of the St. George Deanery program, which I was part of when I was in the Deanery 3 years ago. Now we are extending the mission in the Napoleon area and beyond, regardless of faith. We understand it is a very unique loss that mother's and families encounter. And we believe that life begins at conception, it is a loss that deserves to be recognized, mourned and honored.

Our Goals: Is to provide practical and spiritual information, compassionate support, education, options and resources on infant loss to local families, parishes and healthcare organizations: To provide ways to memorialize and honor the babies who were with us for only a short time. To love others through this corporal and spiritual work of mercy at a great time of need and to validate, honor and advance the Church's pro-life teaching that all life is sacred and that life begins... at the moment of conception.

At the heart of any formation is "Spiritual" which is the building foundation for all growth in holiness. Let us help each other on our faith journey. After all, we are all part of the Body of Christ. As St. Paul tells us in 1Corinthians, "The Body has many parts, all with unique gifts." May we all work together in building up the Body of Christ in our faith community... Our goal is to create the culture as we put Faith into action... a step in the right direction!

Mary's Assumption - Queen of Heaven & Earth

The Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary is August 22, but before the coronation of the Queen of Heaven can begin, she has to be transported from earth to heaven. I have often considered if she was concerned at all. I'm assuming that she trusted her son completely.

The Blessed Virgin Mary must be "assumed" into Heaven, as she is not Divine like her Son. Jesus "ascends" into Heaven.

The Catholic Church celebrates a profound and beautiful truth every August 15th:
Masses at 8:45 and at 7:00 it is a Holy Day of Obligation.

The Assumption of Mary, body and soul, into heavenly glory. This doctrine, while formally having deep roots in Christian Catholic tradition and finding echoes in both scripture and the living faith of the Church, is beautifully articulated in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. Simply put, when Mary's earthly life was over, she was taken up, body and soul, into heaven. It's not about her dying and then being resurrected later (like the general resurrection at the end of time), but rather, a unique privilege granted to her by God. Immaculate Virgin, preserved free from all stain of original sin, when the course of her earthly life was finished, was taken up body and soul into heavenly glory.
