Labor Day...

This weekend we recognize and honor those who work and labor. There is a certain amount of dignity in working no matter how humble the task or job may seem or whether it is paid or not, and all who work or who are looking for work are celebrated on Labor Day. As we gather today around the table of the Lord, we hear Jesus teach a guest, also gathered around a banquet table of the importance of humility. May we approach both our work and the Eucharistic table with humility, recognizing God's grace in making us worthy Saints in the Making.

Dear friends, today the Lord summons us to offer preferential treatment to the poor and those who live with disabilities, in a saintly like action. Our society's values often fly in the face of this gospel mandate. As we go forth to reflect on the living word, we pray that each of us are strengthened as we put into practice the gospel way of life. That means we are not afraid to reach out to our fellow brothers and sisters in humility.

For the guest in today's Gospel and the host is not an occasion for self-promotion but an opportunity to acknowledge humbly one's rightful role... the guest, so as to take the lowest place; the host is then to disregard the wealthy as part of authentic discipleship.

As we honor Labor Day Monday by taking a day-off... we also pray for the care of God's creation. As the host of God's creation, we are challenged to reach out and support all who care for God's gardens. We have a great supportive and garden care-takers here at St. Augustine. We thank them for their efforts and care. I am always receiving great compliments on how nice our parish grounds look. Thank you for your loving care!

- Fr. Jerry

A Strong Start in the Faith...OCIA Process

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) Yes, becoming a Catholic is a process...a journey...a learning experience of becoming Catholic. Thinking of joining the Roman Catholic Church? Have questions about the faith? Want to explore the faith more deeply? The full content of the Catholic faith can be organized into four categories: Basic beliefs (the faith itself) - How to live (morality) - How Catholics worship (liturgy) and Prayer.

In exploring the truth of our faith we go to the very essence of it through the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which contains the hidden energy of the Good News, scripture itself. When we have become convinced...we are able to convince others. Growing in faith is understanding the truth. A golden opportunity awaits all through this process.

The Catholic OCIA process is a good model of basic faith development. New classes will begin this September on Wednesday nights. If you have questions please call the parish office or speak to one of the faith team members.
