Being motivated by the Word of our Lord...

Some of you may remember an old ad campaign for Memorex cassette tapes from the 70's. Their positioning statement was, Is it alive or is it Memorex? Their most memorable commercial was showing a jazz singer's voice breaking a glass. Then using one of their tapes, they recorded and played back her singing that... also broke a glass. Is it alive or is it Memorex? I am not deeply connected to music or have been blessed to do my own professional live and recorded singing. And, I don't use Memorex tapes.

But, there is no mistaking a recording vs. live performance. There is a certain depth and a truth that is present in a live performance, that both the conscious and subconscious respond to. It's an experience that cannot be fully captured in a recording. Today's version of the Memorex question is Ah—is it really her or is it not? And don't we at times find ourselves similarly questioning a moment of someone's authenticity? Are they being real, or are they up to something? If we aren't careful, this can also be true of our times of our statements with others. Maybe we find ourselves even questioning... is that really true or not?

Applying voice techniques is good until it's not! Proverbs 11:3 comes to mind: "The honesty of the upright guides them; the faithless are ruined by their duplicity."

If we aren't properly focused, we can speak with a type of duplicity: being "technique-y" rather than leading with honest care and concern. This happens when we are overly focused on the mechanics of technique to get what we want. Worst case, we unknowingly dehumanize those we want to help. It's the tool/technique that is a utility. The people we want to help know consciously or subconsciously when they are being "technique-ed." This moment feels impersonal and could also feel manipulative. It can create a barrier and bruise trust.

Yes, one must have the outcome at the top of mind, and the outcome in mind could be the issue. Ask yourself, what do I want to "build" with what I have been blessed with? Skill? Morale? Teamwork? Or purely, a space with less headaches for me? Less fires to put out? Or to get someone off my back? Yup. It's one of those moments to check in and see if it is time to get out of the way. Getting out of the way is letting God be in charge. —Fr. Jerry

Prayer for Peace in our Troubled Land & Respect for all Life

When: Sunday October 5th. Time: 3:30 - 4:30

Christ reveals himself when we gather for the Eucharist in Exposition. Jesus told us where two or three gather in his name, he would be present. He really meant that!

Question: What can I do this week to be an "Unprofitable Servant" in God's eyes? Being Sunday is Respect Life Sunday, we will gather in prayer with the Exposition of the Holy Eucharist in prayer with everyone throughout the land for true peace and Respect for all Life. Please take time to join in group prayer. The observance emphasizes concern for all human life, especially that of the unborn, the elderly, persons with disabilities, the terminally ill, and others whose lives are threatened. We gather in prayer.

We are in search of someone willing to continue with the mowing. Rick estimates 28 mows per season and he thought he spent about 3 - 4 hours trimming and 6 - 7 hours mowing (averages about once a week or so). The cemetery supplies the mower and trimmers. This is a paid position.

Fall clean-up is scheduled for Sat., Oct. 25 at 9:00 a.m. All spring/summer decorations are to be removed from gravesites prior to this date.

FRIDAY ADORATION will take place each First Friday of the month after 8:45 Mass until 5:30 p.m. We will have a sign-up sheet in the back of the church and would appreciate folks filling the day so that our Lord is not exposed on the altar without anyone present. If you are not able to come for your hour of adoration, please call Jane Recker at 419-508-0711. The day will end with Benediction at 5:30 p.m.

FROM THE SCHOOL

Prayer is at the heart of who we are. One of the most meaningful traditions we share is gathering together to pray the Rosary. This practice is not only a beautiful devotion to Mary, the Mother of God, but also a powerful way for our children to grow in faith as a community. When we pray the Rosary we draw closer to Jesus through Mary. Each mystery of the Rosary helps us reflect on important moments in the life of Christ and His Mother, teaching our children about the Gospel in a prayerful way. We unite as a school family. By praying together, our students, teachers, and staff remember that we are not just individuals, but part of one Body in Christ. This strengthens our sense of community and shared faith. We learn the rhythm of prayer. The repetition of the Rosary helps children find peace, focus their hearts on God, and understand that prayer is something that can guide and sustain them throughout their lives. We follow the tradition of the Church. October is the month of the Rosary, and the Church has encouraged families and schools for generations to turn to Mary for her intercession, especially in times of need. Gathering to pray the Rosary reminds us that we are never alone. As a school, we ask Mary to intercede for our students, our families, our parish, and our world. It is a beautiful way to place ourselves in God's care and to teach our children the power of prayer. Thank you, Ms. Davis, Miss Roth, and Mrs. Fritsch, for leading us!

Blessings to your family,
Ginny Minnick, Principal
