Ways to cultivate gratitude...

Gratitude is a way for people to appreciate what they have, instead of always reaching for something new in the hope it will make them happier or thinking they can't feel satisfied until every physical and material need is met. Gratitude helps people refocus on what they have instead of what they lack. And, although it may feel contrived at first, this mental state grows stronger with use in our practice.

When one remembers saying "thank you" to people who work for them, or do something above the call of duty, they may find that they are motivated to work harder, and maybe even do more.

There was once three groups of people that were asked to write of something that affected them each week... one group wrote about things they were grateful for that had occurred during the week. A second group wrote about daily irritations or things that had displeased them, and the third wrote about events that had affected them (with no emphasis on them being positive or negative). After 10 weeks, those who wrote about gratitude were more optimistic and felt better about their lives. Surprisingly, they also exercised more and had fewer visits to physicians than those who focused on sources of aggravation. A little kindness goes a long way.

When we gather as a community of faith each week to worship God, we gather in faith and thanksgiving. We thank God for the blessings we've received, and to be nourished by the Eucharist. It is quite fitting that we give thanks to God when we celebrate the Eucharist, since eucharistia in Greek is thanksgiving. Today's readings can remind us how appropriate it is to give thanks to God, just as we would thank a neighbor who does something special for us. Let us be thankful people in our saintly journey, expressing a true spirit of gratitude throughout our lives. Let us not be afraid to come back and say thank you. - Fr. Jerry

WHY YOU NEED HOLY WATER IN YOUR

HOME? - You walk into the church and head to the holy water font. You bless yourself, perhaps without even thinking. Our children learn it at an early age, but often adults begin to forget it or no longer take the plunge.

But Heaven sees it...And Hell trembles at it. Holy water is one of the Church's most powerful tools, and not just when it comes to daily spiritual battles. It's a sacramental commonly used by exorcists on the front lines of spiritual warfare. It's a powerful reminder of our baptisms, when we were washed clean of original sin and eternally marked as a Christian. That's why it's set up right by the church doors. We were baptized Christians by our love, and we continually remind ourselves of this special gift by redoing it every day of our lives. And that's why it should be used in your home too!

CEMETERY NEWS - Rick Keller has decided to retire from the mowing position at the cemetery, effective at the end of the mowing season 2025. We are in search of someone willing to continue with the mowing. Rick estimates 28 mows per season and he thought he spent about 3 - 4 hours trimming and 6 - 7 hours mowing (averages about once a week or so). The cemetery supplies the mower and trimmers. This is a paid position.

Fall clean-up is scheduled for Sat., Oct. 25 at 9:00 a.m. All spring/summer decorations are to be removed from gravesites prior to this date.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY - Next weekend, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Leo XIV invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Europe and the Americas, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

High School Youth Group

Middle School Youth Group

St. Augie's Youth (SAY)

High School Youth Group

We are back to weekly events! Join us for our first formation series, Created & Claimed, a video study on identity and Christian anthropology. St. Francis of Assisi once asked, "Who are you God? And who am I?" It is in coming to know more about God that we come to know our own identity more deeply. This study explores what it means to be human and how to live out our identity in relationship with God.

Upcoming Events:

Oct. 12th - Youth Night on "Made for More"

Oct. 19th - Youth Night on "Made for Communion"

Oct. 26th - Youth Night on "Made for Glory"

St. Augustine Sainthood Seekers (SASS)

Middle School Youth Group

We are switching things up this year for our middle schoolers! We have a new name and are getting started with small groups. But don't worry, large events like Among Us and Adoration are coming soon too.

If your middle schooler is interested in joining a small group with their friends, please scan the QR code and sign them up. Students will be paired with a small group of friends and will meet with a leader sometime after school on a day that works best for your schedules. Each small group may have a different focus depending on their faith needs and interests, while also fostering fun and fellowship. Let's become Saints together.

FROM THE SCHOOL

In honor of the Feast Day of St. Francis of Assisi, Fr. Jerry blessed the pets of our school families in the school parking lot last Friday. This is a beloved day that our staff and students eagerly anticipate every year. We want to say, "Thank you!" to Fr. Jerry for making this event so special!

This month's "Partners in Faith" highlights the fact that we all wish family life came with less stress, but it's often through struggle that God calls us to rely more deeply on His grace. The main article offers five suggestions to manage stress while helping one another grow in holiness, patience, and strength. Also, October's article reminds us that laughter is a great way for children to bond, but what's funny to one person might feel hurtful to another. It's important we teach our children how to handle such awkward moments so they can build empathy, confidence, and social awareness.

Blessings to your family,
Ginny Minnick, Principal
