"Saints in the Making" ★★★★★ "Living and Sharing our Faith"

Recently, I believe God gave me an important insight about priesthood. It was a foggy morning and I was scheduled to have a school Mass. Because of the fog, school was delayed, so the attendance at Mass was just a handful of people. I then celebrated Mass at a nursing home. Again, the attendance was just a handful of people. Following that Mass, I travelled to Toledo for an afternoon meeting and had another activity that evening. Pretty much a normal day. The message I believe God revealed to me occurred at the nursing home Mass. Near the end of Mass, I had this overwhelming feeling that I had just done the most important thing I was going to do that day! Even though those 2 Masses didn't have a combined attendance of 25 people, the Sacrifice of the Mass is our participation in Salvation! Obviously, I have had many different things to occupy my time the past few weeks, but God has called me to be a priest to act in the person of Christ (in persona Christi). I am so grateful that he reminded me of the tremendous honor and responsibility of my vocation. I am also humbled that he would choose me, as sinful and inadequate as I am.

God Blessings to you!

A TRADITION for MOTHERS..

Like St. Monica, sometimes a mother sheds many tears when a son responds to his divine calling. Before St. Augustine returned to the practice of the faith and was ordained a priest his mother shed many tears of intercession. Similarly, many mothers in today's world will make countless sacrifices so that their son can freely respond to whatever calling God has in store for him.

Recognizing this reality a pious tradition has been passed on over the years that pays respect to the role a mother has in a priest's life. When a priest is ordained his hands are anointed with chrism oil by the bishop. After this occurs his hands are cleaned with a white linen towel called a maniturgium. The oil that is used on the hands of the priest is sacred, having been previously consecrated by the bishop.

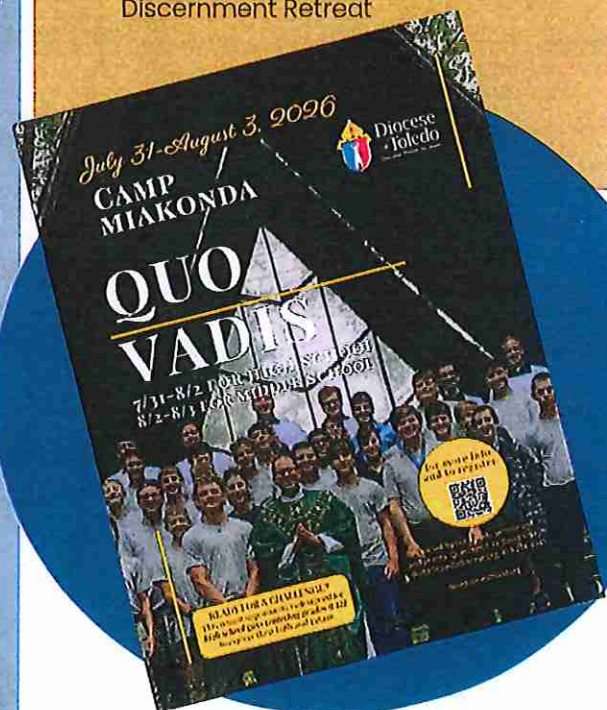

According to an age-old tradition the mother saves the towel in a safe place until she dies. Then when her body is prepared for the funeral the maniturgium is placed within the hands of the mother.

When she arrives to the gates of heaven she is escorted directly to our Lord. Our Lord says to the woman – "I have given you life, what have you given to me?" She hands him the maniturgium and responds, "I have given you my son as a priest." At this Jesus grants her entry into paradise.

It is a beautiful and consoling tradition that is always a touching ceremony to witness. Many more tears are shed when a young priest presents the towel to his mother, tears of joy instead of sorrow.

Upcoming Dates from the Vocations Office:

- o April 26: World Day of Prayer for Vocations (Good Shepherd Sunday)
- o May 16: Evan Sekerak's Diaconate Ordination (Holy Rosary Cathedral)
- o June 27: Deacon Andrew Messer's Priesthood Ordination (St. Joan of Arc)

A PRAYER FOR SEMINARIANS

Father, thank You for the generosity of our seminarians.
Safeguard them as they prepare for the priesthood.

Keep all evil far from them, so they may become strong Christian men who are faithful to prayer, diligent in their studies, open to spiritual direction, and docile to all aspects of seminary formation.

Above all, enflame their hearts with love so they will be ardent and gentle shepherds for Your Church.
We make this prayer through the great High Priest, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

St. Charles Borromeo, patron of seminarians, pray for us.
