FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MIKE

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

My Dear Friends in Christ:

Our Parish Patron, St. Augustine said it best when he said: "Our hearts are restless, O God, until we rest in you, O God." In other words, from the depths of our hearts there is a yearning that there is more to life than what we have in the "here and now". We will go to great lengths in the search of fulfillment, and happiness. Some will pursue wonderful ways to seek this fulfillment, such as making pilgrimages to Lourdes and Medjugorje, or make spiritual retreats.

Others will search for this elusive fulfillment in destructive ways such as in money, food, alcohol, drugs, control, overdependence on relationships, etc. Human history is filled with many failed attempts to discover the "something more" beyond the limitations of this earthly life.

In today's gospel Jesus speaks of us as all "longing" for the kingdom of God. He offers parables concerning the great lengths people will go in order to possess it, and to enter into it. Ultimately, we must accept that in order to gain the Kingdom of God, we must first be prepared to first lose all that we are in order to gain Christ.

This "losing" can take place in many forms. Following Christ completely may require us to give up certain ambitions, or to put aside certain habits or ways of life which may be difficult for us to give up. But we must be humble enough to accept that there is always some pain associated with growth and rebirth. Let us pray, then, that God will grant each of us the gift of wisdom, that we might be able to focus our efforts and energies on doing the will of God, and being instruments of his holiness in building up his Kingdom here on earth.

It is a joy and blessing to serve you as your Pastor,

Fr. Michael
+ JMJ +

SAFE ENVIRONMENT AND COMPLIANCE

AUDIT - The Diocese of Toledo is in compliance with the articles of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People (Charter) of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB).

Every year, the Diocese dutifully submits the necessary documentation required by the USCCB for a diocese to be in compliance.

Every three years an on-site audit is conducted, when not only all necessary documentation is dutifully submitted, but in addition, Pastoral Center, parish and diocesan school employees are interviewed concerning practices and protocols related to creating and maintaining a safe environment for our children and youth.

The last 3-year audit was conducted in September 2024 and all audited Articles within the Charter were found to be compliant. The next on-site audit will be conducted in 2027.

The Diocese of Toledo remains committed to ensuring the protection of children and providing a safe environment for all young people. If you have any knowledge of abuse that has been committed by a cleric, or any personnel of the Catholic Church, you are urged to report the abuse to your local police department, Children Services, and the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (419) 214-4880 or by mail at 1933 Spielbusch Avenue, Toledo, Ohio 43604.

GOING ON VACATION - Please use Online Giving to catch up on offertory contributions. Go to www.staugie.net and click on the Online Giving link, it's quick and easy.

HUMANITARIAN EARTHQUAKE RELIEF COLLECTION FOR VENEZUELA - Our prayers go out to the people of Venezuela. Hundreds have lost their lives and thousands have been injured in recent back-to-back earthquakes. The death toll is expected to rise as residents and rescuers search for survivors trapped in the rubble across the South American country. Thousands are now homeless, suffering from the widespread destruction wrought by the deadliest earthquake to hit the country since 1900.

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is working through Caritas Venezuela to respond to urgent humanitarian needs in providing emergency safe shelter, food, water, medical care and emergency supplies to those in affected areas.

As in past disasters, Catholic Charities Diocese of Toledo is collecting and forwarding donations dollar for dollar to Catholic Relief Services for this international humanitarian relief effort.

You may donate on our secure website:

www.catholiccharitiesnwo.org, selecting Venezuela Earthquake Relief as your donation designation. Please make checks out to Catholic Charities Diocese of Toledo, noting Venezuela Earthquake Relief. Please mail checks to Catholic Charities Diocese of Toledo, One Seagate, Suite 2300, Toledo, OH 43604. Thank you for supporting those in need.
