FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MIKE

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

My Dear Friends in Christ:

Our Gospel this Nineteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time has a lot to say about fear, about faith, about trust — and about daring to do the impossible. And scripture scholars have lots of interesting interpretations of its meaning and what we're supposed to learn from this powerful account of Jesus walking on the water. Some scholars tell us it's a metaphor about the Church being tossed about during turbulent times; other scholars focus on the faith of Peter; others mention the fear of the disciples trapped in the boat. In fact, entire theological books have been written about this passage alone.

But the powerful truth of this Scripture passage is crystal clear: each of us is asked, in our own way, to call out to Jesus and walk to him, keeping our eyes fixed on him with every step. In doing so, we may find ourselves doing something incredible, something we never thought we had the strength to do. Over and over again in my almost 25 years as a priest I have encountered people who aren't afraid to walk to Jesus during what may seem to be the most violent storms in which life overwhelms them.

Ultimately, there's a beautiful lesson in our Gospel passage for all of us: Christ alone is our guide, our rescuer, our hope. The Holy Gospel this Sunday calls out to us in the violent storms of our lives saying: "Have faith, have courage. Trust in Jesus, turn to Jesus, hope in Jesus." Yes indeed, we may feel the storms and rains pelting our faces and the winds blustering around us. But fed by the Eucharist, uplifted by God's word, and strengthened by our family of faith, we can do what we never thought possible, if and only if—we keep our eyes on Christ, and like Peter, have the courage to get out of the boat.

It is a joy and blessing to serve as your Pastor,

Fr. Michael
+ JMJ+

"We must face all the storms and fight with all the strength of our soul. But we are not alone, because Jesus is with us, and with Him we fear nothing."

- St. Faustina Kowalska

Chairman's Statement on 52nd Anniversary of Roe v. Wade

USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities

I join all Catholics throughout our nation in observing January 22 as a day of prayer and penance. As we prayerfully continue the essential work of restoring full legal protection of all preborn children and supporting parents facing difficult pregnancies, we also recognize our need for asking forgiveness and healing from the Lord for when we have given in to the culture of death.

Abortion inflicts deep and lasting wounds on society, but more directly on individuals and families. Many mothers and fathers may feel they have no choice except abortion. Some are pressured or coerced. No matter the circumstances of the abortion, we must recognize the often-silent grief of parents for their child and their despair of being worthy of the love and forgiveness of God and others.

To the parents of children who have died by abortion, I am deeply sorry for your loss. Know that our Lord loves you as His daughters and sons no matter your actions. No sin is beyond His unfathomable Mercy. Jesus greatly desires our repentant hearts and invites us into an encounter with Him. For Catholics, the Sacrament of Reconciliation is always available for those seeking God's forgiveness, hope, and peace.

As we celebrate this Jubilee Year as Pilgrims of Hope, Pope Francis invites us to experience God's love 'that awakens in hearts the sure hope of salvation in Christ' (Spes Non Confundit, 6). Hope allows those who have been involved in abortion to turn to God and repent, confident that He will forgive and make them whole.

This January 22 and beyond, we need to be reassured that Jesus Himself, who is the source of our hope, was first wounded for our offenses, and suffered for every sin of ours, including abortion. Please join me in praying that God will fill the hearts of mothers and fathers suffering the emotional and psychological wounds from abortion with the hope of forgiveness that only He can give. We invite them to seek support from the Church's compassionate and confidential ministries.

If you or someone you know is interested in confidential help after abortion, please reach out to your local Catholic parish, or visit the national Project Rachel Ministry websites, www.HopeAfterAbortion.org or www.EsperanzaPosAborto.org for a listing of diocesan abortion healing ministries.

Thank you to all of our youth and their families for their part in our youth ministry. It has been a fantastic 5 years spent getting to know you all and to love on your spiritually. It's been such a blessing to watch our youth grow in their faith and who they are as a person. From Bible studies and adoration, to retreats and sleepless lock-ins, thank you for the memories and for sharing your love of Jesus. Know that you are in my prayers, and please pray for baby and I as we step into this new season of ministry of family. While I may not be your official youth minister anymore, I am still always here for you. I'll see you around church.

Love and prayers always,

Following the interment there will be a gathering of friends for a light lunch and story-sharing at the pavilion adjacent to the Lathrop House in Sylvania—about a 2 minute drive from the cemetery. All former parishioners and friends are welcome; those planning the day simply ask that you text either Fr. Charles Ritter (executor of the estate) at 419-654-1368 or family friend Becky (Brown) Hill at 419-212-1984 and let them know (for the sake of lunch planning.)
