FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MIKE

Twenty-Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time

My Dear Parishioners of St. Augustine:

Sacred Scripture this Sunday reminds us once again that God's ways are not our ways, and that we can never make the mistake of believing God looks at the world as we do – especially when it comes to generosity and mercy. God's mercy and compassion are beyond our human imaginations and limitations. We humans are great score keepers; we humans parcel out forgiveness and love; we humans have our limits as to how much and how many times we will forgive. But not God – God's mercy is infinite.

Jesus tells the wonderful parable of a landowner, who is generous with those he calls to work in his vineyard, no matter what their past, no matter what their limitations, no matter how long or how short they have served him. We are also reminded of a beautiful truth: it's never too late to serve the Lord; it's never too late to have a change of heart; it's never too late to leave behind our old selves; it's never too late to put behind us an old way of life or a bad habit or a way of being that gets in the way of us serving the Lord and being the person God wants us to be.

When our Earthly journey is over, we will be judged for the things that we have done, and the things that we have failed to do. In other words, we all will face a final judgment – an accounting of our lives. Well – it is finally here – our 26th TURTLEFEST! I hope to see you sometime this weekend as we celebrate this wonderful annual tradition in Parish and our Napoleon community!

Please note: I will be away from the Parish for part of this week taking retreat days, but I will be back on Friday! Please know of my sincere prayers for you and your families while I am away!

It is a joy and blessing to serve you as your Pastor,

Fr. Michael

FROM THE SCHOOL

I would like to extend a heartfelt "Thank You" to everyone who helps make TurtleFest possible! Whether you set up, tear down, volunteer your time, share your talents, donate resources, work a shift, or support the festival in any way, your generosity and dedication make this event a success. As we celebrate the 26th Annual TurtleFest this weekend, we are reminded that this festival would not be possible without the incredible support of our parish, school, and community. Your willingness to serve and work together reflects the true spirit of our St. Augustine community, and we are deeply grateful. Thank you for helping make TurtleFest a success. May God bless you for your generosity, service, and support!

A very special "Thank You" goes to our Parish Manager, Laurie Brubaker, and our TurtleFest Chairs, Jessica Green and Joe Hunyor, for their planning, leadership, and hard work. Your behind-the-scenes commitment helps ensure TurtleFest remains a cherished tradition for our parish and community.
