FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MIKE

Twenty-Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Even though we know that we can never give up Christian hope, sometimes we just cannot help but sense that our world can seem like a vineyard that has gone to seed. Too much tragedy, too much violence, too much political infighting, too much moral decay, and too many offenses against the dignity of the human person. At times we may seem like a world and a nation gone astray. Such was the condition of Jerusalem in our First Reading this Sunday. Through the prophet Isaiah, God asks the people what He could have possibly done to make them reject him. Instead of cultivating peace and prosperity, it seems the people produce injustice and bloodshed. God is saddened that humanity has rejected all that is good.

Our Gospel builds upon this idea. Jesus tells yet another parable (He's good at those!) about a landowner who planted a rich vineyard, placed a hedge around it, and set up a winepress - in other words, the landowner prepared the vineyard so that it would produce bountiful fruit. And what happened? The landowner entrusts the vineyard to tenants, who neglect the vineyard.

Certainly, the world is in need of healing. But to begin this healing - in our world, in our country, in the human family, and in ourselves, we need to seek a personal encounter with Jesus Christ. This personal encounter with Jesus is an encounter with his mercy that touches and heals the darkest recesses of our own heart. Is there some dark recess in your soul that still harbors things that you're not yet ready to bring to the Lord for healing - possibly because you don't yet feel ready to face these things or admit it to yourself? Every one of us has some area of personal brokenness deep down that is a source of self-questioning anxiety that weighs on us; we can pretend it isn't there...but it is.

My dear friends in Christ, believe it or not, that wound can be a gift. That painful place can be a gift because that hole in your heart is the opening through which Jesus can enter your life and dwell in your heart in a more profound way than ever before. Not where we are strong, but rather where we are weak. Because that is where we are the most vulnerable. That is where there can be no denying how much we need Jesus, and that we cannot make it on our own.

St. Paul captures this beautifully in today's second reading, where he writes: "Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God. Then the peace of God which surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." St. Paul gives us great advice! Remember: even in our darkest hours, we must never cease to be people of hope, guided by the God in whom we place our trust.

It is a joy and blessing to serve you as your Pastor,

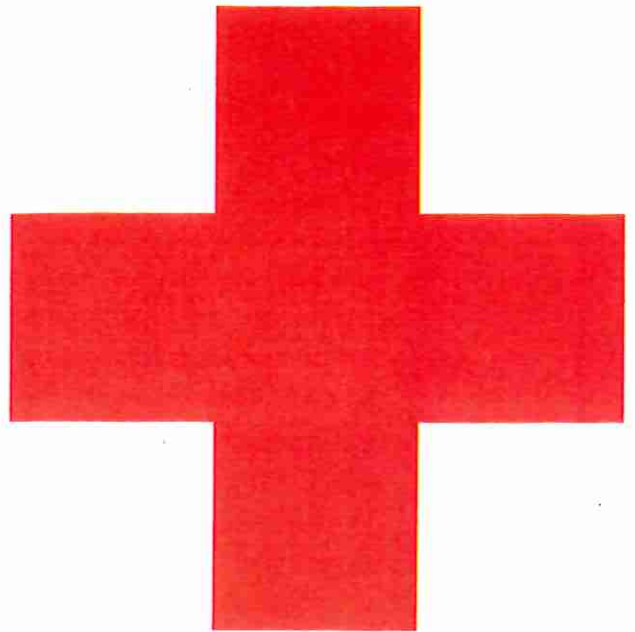

Fr. Michael
+ JMJ+

NOTE: I will not be at the 4:30 pm Saturday Mass this weekend because I have a family wedding to officiate at in Toledo! But I will be back for Sunday Masses. Happy Fall!

SAFE ENVIRONMENT AND COMPLIANCE AUDIT - The Diocese of Toledo is in compliance with the articles of the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People (Charter) of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB).

Every year, the Diocese dutifully submits the necessary documentation required by the USCCB for a diocese to be in compliance.

Every three years an on-site audit is conducted, when not only all necessary documentation is dutifully submitted, but in addition, Pastoral Center, parish and diocesan school employees are interviewed concerning practices and protocols related to creating and maintaining a safe environment for our children and youth.

The last 3-year audit was conducted in September 2024 and all audited Articles within the Charter were found to be compliant. The next on-site audit will be conducted in 2027.

The Diocese of Toledo remains committed to ensuring the protection of children and providing a safe environment for all young people. If you have any knowledge of abuse that has been committed by a cleric, or any personnel of the Catholic Church, you are urged to report the abuse to your local police department, Children Services, and the Diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator at (419) - 214-4880 or by mail at 1933 Spielbusch Avenue, Toledo, Ohio 43604.

FROM THE SCHOOL

We are excited to begin our upcoming Academic Fair, a highlight of our school year that celebrates student learning, creativity, and critical thinking. This event is a comprehensive learning experience designed to develop key skills our students will use throughout their educational experiences and beyond. Fifth grade will focus on Art, sixth grade on History, seventh grade on Science, and eighth grade on Religion. Students will be graded on the creation of a Slideshow, Presentation Board, Oral Presentation, and a Project or Experiment related to their chosen research topic. This activity will culminate in classroom presentations and public judging during Catholic Schools Week. We believe these experiences prepare students for future academic challenges while fostering creativity, independence, and a genuine love for learning.

Blessings to your family,
Ginny Minnick, Principal
