FROM THE DESK OF FATHER MIKE

Thirty-Third Sunday of Ordinary Time

My Dear Friends in Christ:

Where has the year gone? This Sunday is the last "regular" Sunday of Ordinary Time. Next Sunday is the Solemnity of Christ the King, and then the week after, the holy season of Advent begins. For months now St. Matthew has taken us on an incredible journey through his Gospel which is rich in parables. We have heard parable after parable on what the Kingdom of God is like: It's like a wedding banquet where all are invited yet few come; It's like a vineyard waiting to be harvested; It's like a treasure buried in a field.

St. Matthew's has also instructed us Jesus' greatest commandment to love God with our whole hearts and souls, and to love our neighbor as ourselves. He has reminded us of the words of Christ about giving to Caesar what is Caesar's and God what is God's. St. Matthew reminds us to be wise, ready, and awake, ready for the coming of the Lord, like the wise virgins who brought plenty of oil to keep their lamps burning bright. And now Matthew's Gospel brings us a final parable, the parable of the talents, and its message is simple: God gives us all talents – and whether He gives us five talents, two talents, one talent--it makes no difference. What God expects of us is that we do our best to glorify God with the life and the talents and the resources that we are given.

We must remember that suffering and setbacks will come our way. Difficulties, disappointments and failure come to all of us. But suffering is not failure! Failure is the downright refusal to try, to take risks -- to take action - the burying of the gifts that we've been given. Burying our talent is cowardly. Learning to embrace life and make your own contribution to it, that's true courage. May God give us the grace to cultivate and use our talents so on that day when we see him face to face, we may hear these treasured words, and then enter into the Kingdom prepared for us from the foundation of the world.

It is a joy and blessing to serve you as your Pastor.

Fr. Michael

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
WORKING ON THE MARGINS

The bishops of the United States founded the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) to fight poverty by empowering members of local communities, rather than by offering top-down solutions. Using this approach, CCHD-funded organizations identify the most pressing issues and develop creative solutions that lead to lasting positive changes in the community. They address poverty at its roots.

Access to affordable housing is a challenge for people in neighborhoods across the United States. Housing insecurity is not limited to big cities—it affects people in small towns and rural areas as well. Kentucky's Lewis County, where 23% of residents live below the poverty line, is one example.

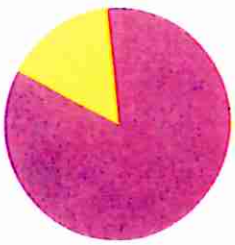

Since 1982, People's Self-Help Housing Inc. (PSHH) has helped residents of Lewis County secure affordable housing by constructing new energy-efficient homes, repairing and rehabilitating existing homes, and maintaining affordable rental units, while also creating jobs by training local residents as carpenters, electricians, and plumbers. Located in the Diocese of Covington and supported by CCHD funding, PSHH shares CCHD's commitment to helping people help themselves.

Your contribution to the CCHD collection helps organizations like PSHH to break the cycle of poverty across the country and in your own neighborhood, where 25% of your contribution remains to support local antipoverty efforts.

Learn more about how CCHD advances the Church's moral and social teaching by empowering communities: visit www.usccb.org/cchd.

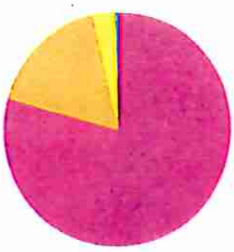

LEARN about those living in poverty who are working to improve their communities. • ACT and spread the word about poverty by sharing this flier. • CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the collection. • PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

FROM THE SCHOOL

We would like to extend a heartfelt thank-you to our St. Augustine Parents Club for generously sponsoring and preparing dinner for our staff! Your kindness and thoughtfulness are truly appreciated. It was a pleasure to connect with our families during Parent/Teacher Conferences. We are grateful for the partnership between our school and families as we continue to help our students grow in faith, knowledge, and character!

The Henry County Prosecutor, Mrs. Gwen Howe-Gebers, once again sponsored the Safety Kids Calendar Contest to encourage all students in grades 5-8 to confront topics affecting our youth today! Congratulations to the winners from St. Augustine Catholic School: Delaney Black, Ellie Welzbacher, Rosa Pullen, and Audra Storch!! Their artwork will be published in a calendar distributed by the prosecuting attorney's office, and all students will receive a copy. Thank you, Mrs. Howe-Gebers!

This week, Veterans from our school and parish families joined us for a special program. Our Saints Leadership Team welcomed our Veterans with a skit titled "Heroes Among Us." After the skit, several students representing each grade sang "The National Anthem." Then, each Veteran introduced themselves and shared stories of their service. We asked thoughtful questions about their military experiences, which helped us foster a deeper appreciation for their sacrifices. Next, we watched a slideshow honoring our Veterans, featuring their photos, military branch, rank, and connection to our school community. The program concluded with our Student Leadership Team reciting a poem and our student body presenting handmade appreciation cards. Our school community extends its deepest gratitude to all Veterans and appreciates those who attended our program and joined us for lunch. Your service and presence made this day truly meaningful!

Blessings to your family,
Ginny Minnick, Principal
